

PLEASE, PLEASE DO NOT, I repeat, DO NOT change the way the "Do Not Call" law is written. For once in my life, my family can try to have dinner without being interrupted. I am totally angered at the thought that this law could be weakened or abolished. Where are MY rights?

If any changes are to be made, make them stricter!

Janet Donaghy